of Mormonism that the young man learned. It was a lesson as old as humanity. And the teacher learned

With the "Little Man of Sorrow," as he had become known, his days passed as those of a condemned man whose execution was approaching. Disease was gaming on him, and his spirit was wrought at the thought of separation from his child. He had new light on the doctrine of plural marriage.

When Brigham Young arrived in state to claim his latest bride he was met with many surprises. In the conference called to welcome him, the bowed pres-mounted a horse and disappeared. The youth and the girl followed him. By day and by night they pursued. At last they came upon him, prostrate at the foot of the cross making the fatal spot at Mountain Meadows. Life was fast ebbing, but he roused to have a few last words with them and from his reclining position to pronounce the words which made them man

An Indian appeared in the moonlight, disappeared, and returned with another Indian, "Big Medicine." The second red man began an incantation.

The Indian's other hand came up, and they saw, slowly waved before the staring eyes of the little man, a long mass of yellow hafr that writhed and ran in little gleaming waves, as if it lived. It was tied about the wrist of the Indian with strips of scarlef flannel—tied below a broad silver bracelet that glittered from the bronzed arm.

The face of the sick man had a moment before been tranquil, almost smiling, but now his eyes followed the hair with something of fascination in them. Then a garden.

But, with its passing, there came again into his eyes the light of sanity. He gazed at the hair, breathless, still in wonder; and then, very slowly, there grew over his face the look of an unearthly peace, so that those who were by him deferred the putting aside of the indian. With eyes wide open, full of a calm they could not understand, he looked and smiled, his wan face flushing again in that last time. Then, reaching suddenly out, his long white fingers tangled themselves feebly in the gelden skein and, with a little loving uplift of the eyes, he drew it to his breast. A few seconds he held it so, not later than 4 p. m. Saturday. Notices received after that time cannot be printed Sunday morn-

HE quiet of the mid-summer season upon the place, and for the next few days there is almost nothing planned.

The one event of importance scheduled

Dr. and Mrs. Duncan will be at how to their friends shortly in this city. so far is the lawn party to be given Thursday by Miss Salisbury in honor of Miss Edna Donnellan. It is to be a large affair and will include all of the younger set, will doubtless be the largest of the summer affairs, the reder of the season being devoted to less formal and more impromptu en-

Among the pleasant events of the week were the luncheon given by Miss McGrath, also in honor of Miss Donnellan, the card party for Mrs. Tuttle and a number of weddings at the close of the marriage month. The event which created the most profound interest was the marriage on Thursday of Miss Ora Harkness and Mr. Davis, the warm weather. which, although not entirely unexpect-ed among the more intimate friends of among the more intimate friends of bride, came as a great surprise to a have discontinued their Tuesdays at

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Mann announced he engagement of their daughter, lara, to Mr. Frederick Sands. The marriage will take place July 22.

All matter for this department of The Sunday Herald + drop all attempts at formal entertainmust reach the society editor + must reach the society editor + period of comparative rest.

announcements of engagements of especial interest were made during the week, that of Miss Irene Dickson and Mr. Russel Schulder and that of Miss Eva Dix to William C. Druehl.

has settled upon the social world, friends in this city is that of the marand although the gayety of June and although the gayety of June extended into the first few days of the month, a period of social inactivity is Dr. and Mrs. Duncan will be at home continuum the place and for the part few

> Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer will spend the greater part of the summer at Brighton

> The Fisher Harris family are having a cottage built at Silver Lake for the summer outing.

Mrs. E. A. Smith has returned from Europe, where she has spent the bet-ter part of the past year. Miss Mary Olive Gray left during the week for a stay of some weeks in Col-

Mrs. Arthur Shepherd has discon-inued her Mondays at home till after home till the autumn. Mrs. Woodward and Miss Woodward Mrs. Woodward and Miss Woodward will not be at home on Thursdays, as is their custom through the warm be at home to her friends at 1045 East

Many of the residents of the city are eaving either for the mountains or for the coast, and the usual round of gay Next Wednesday will be guest day at the Country club and the hosts will be the bachelor officers from the post. The Billie Boys held their regular quarterly meeting last Monday evening for the election of officers. Mr. Nelson was re-elected president, David weather.

Mrs. Baker, better known here as Mr. Harry Dewey.

for a month's visit with her parents.

Mrs. Robert B. Harkness has discontinued her days at home for the warm weather. Mrs. Thomas B. Davis will be back to the city early in the week to spend some time with her parents, Judge and some time with Dr. W. H. Hopkins left Thursday with a party of four for an outing of six or seven weeks in Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Midgley and children leave about the 15th of July for Pacific Grove and other points in Cal-ifornia to be absent about sixty days.

Mrs. W. S. Patterson will entertain for the benefit of the Ladies' Ald so-ciety of the Central Christian church Friday evening, July 10, at 344 East

* * * Miss Daisy Mitchener of New Philadelphia, O., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Arthur Critchlow.

Tenth South.

Brigham street. . . .

R. Sprunt was elected vice president, James Watson secretary and Will Ball treasurer. The other officers are A. H. Buft. Clyde Simmons, James Cowan and Art Boiton. Their last excursion to Provo canyon was a success in every way, and they intend giving one to Ogden in the near future.

A pleasant and unique party was tendered Miss Alice Gilson Tuesday evening by the members of the Salt Lake postoffice ball team. Songs, recitations and speeches were indulged in, and a pleasant and enjoyable time was passed. At II o'clock all partook of an elegant lunch, presided over by Miss Katie Kilson. Captain Sam Randolph, in behalf of the ball team. presented Miss Alice Gilson with a handsome gold medal to-show the team's appreciation of the loyal and true support she has given it. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gilson, Mrs. Love, Mrs. L. E. Camomile, Miss Armode Brinnin, Misses Kate, Alice, Koko, Eva and Mattie Gilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heath, Mr. S. N. Randolph and Brinnin, Misses Kate, Alice, Koko, Eva and Mattie Gilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heath, Mr. S. N. Randolph and Mr. Harry Dewey.

A very pleasant affair was the reception given Tuesday evening in honor of the 50th birthday of Mrs. J. Freeze. The rooms and the table were prettily decorated with roses and carnations, and a delicious supper was served, the tables being presided over by Mrs. H. A. Tucker, Mrs. A. E. Nestin, Miss Maud Freeze and Miss Jennie Freeze. About fifty guests partook

Mrs. George Tuttle and son of St.

Louis will spend the summer with the parents of Mrs. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs.
George Y. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Rhoades are spending a part of the summer in Saratoga.

Mrs. Robert B. Harkness, has disin. Miss Maud Freeze and Miss Jennie Freeze. About fifty guests partook of the festivities of the occasion, among whom, besides the host and hostess, were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Angus M. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Mr. and Mrs. Saac Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Felt, Mr. and Mrs. William Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. George Granter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Neslin, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collett, Mr. and Mrs. George Freeze, Mrs. Alice Atkins, Mrs. Maggie Bassett, Mrs. Sarah H. McMaster, Mrs. Lizzie Searle, Misses Emaline McMaster, Dora Granter, Mettie Granter, Sarah Searle, Maude Freeze, Jennie Freeze, Clara Freeze, Mr. William H. Folland, Mr. A. E. White, Mr. Joseph A. Williams, Mr. Carl Freeze, Mr. Sherman Freeze and Mr. Bruce Freeze.

There will be a charity lawn party at the residence of Jacob Moritz next Wednesday evening.

Marrige Lisences. Marrige Lisences.

Jethro O. Bartlett, Salt Lake
Bertha Draper, Salt Lake
Andrew J. Burke, Salt Lake
Alma Baron, Stateline
Oakley M. Bailey, Murray
Barbara J. Blanehard, Murray
Frederick J. Ward, Salt Lake
Annie H. Chase, Salt Lake
John James Strange, Diamor Wyo.

Lucy Green, Diamondville, Wyo. Robert S. Stringfellow, Chinook, Mc Rosalie Cope, Salt Lake

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson en-Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson entertained a few of their relatives in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Don. An elaborate dinner was served in three courses and the house was beautifully decorated with flowers. Those present were: Misses and Mesdames Jake Huffman, James Don, Graham and Laborate.

Miss Tena McDonald returned home from the city Thursday, after a two weeks' visit with friends. A quiet home wedding of Wednes-A quiet home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Ida Gibson and Mr. Gilbert Fields. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, by Justice of the Peace B. M. Sperry, and was witnessed by only a few of the most intimate friends of the family. The young couple will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Frazier

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Frazier left Sunday for Canada, where they will spend the summer.

has been attending school for the past year.

A thoroughly delightful affair was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. A.

R. Graham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Don, sr., in nonor of Mr. and Mrs. James Don, jr. The home was very prettily decorated with cut flowers and bunting, and the lawn and Mrs. John W. Geiger Saturday evening at their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Watson, Mr. James Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. G. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. William Staley, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Watson, Mrs. Kate Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Watson and Mr. James Simpson of Heber City.

W. I. Snyder was in the Park on bath and L. A. Jeffs. business this week. Miss Nellie Paull came up from the city Tuesday morning to visit with her parents in this city.

The Misses Della Williams and Emma Howells entertained a few of their friends at a picnic party Monday afternoon at Snyder's grove. The invited guests were: The Misses Burn Gibson, Bernal Durkin, Rose Kaufman, Etta Howells, Orba Richardson, Bertie Beatty, Sadie Jorgensen, Gertrude Birnie, May Birnie, Ednell Thiriot, Hazel Williams, Lottie Oliver, Jean Thiriot, Carrol Shepherd, Olive Shepherd, Lizzie Shields, Ethel Doyle, Susie Shields, Lillie Kneale, Beth Boyd, Olive Allen, Miriam Raddon, Ruby Ferguson, Maud Yake, Eleanor Wright, Ruby Cushing, Bessie Cushing, Ivy Crab, and the Masters Forest Howells, Misses Della Williams and Ruby Cushing, Bessie Cushing, Ivy Crab, and the Masters Forest Howells, Kenney Gibson and Lumis Richard-

The Misses Jean Thiriot, Carrol and Olive Shepherd spent Tuesday visiting in Heber.

Sunday afternoon Thomas Diem entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Ruby Ferguson. Those present were: The Misses Hazel Williams, Lottie Oli-ver, Etta Howells, Bernal Durkins, Maud Yake and Rose Kaufman.

Maud Yake and Rose Kaufman.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. W.
W. Armstrong entertained very informally at their home in honor of the Misses and Mesdames B. R. Weeter. R. E. Wight, L. B. Wight, Charles Shields, W. E. Hopkins and W. G. Lamb. The game of the evening was Klondike hearts.

will spend the summer.

Edward Walker was a passenger from the city Monday morning.

The following peeple spent Sunday at the Bottomless Hot Pots: The Misses Paull, Fargo and Messrs, and Mesdames Geiger, Fargo and Mixer.

Sam H. Raddon returned home from Boston Monday morning, where he has been attending school for the past year.

Klondike nears.

A very pleasant event was given at the Masonic hall last evening by the members of Silver Spray lodge No. 2.

D. of H., A. O. U. W. Only the members of the lodge were present. The following programme was rendered. after which light refreshments were served: Instrumental solo, Rhoda Mason: recitation, Daisy Cattison; vorcal solo. Nettie Grav: instrumental porches were lighted with electricity and Japanese lanterns. Supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. Graham durating the evening. The guests of the evening were: The Misses Agnes Kelly, Frances Noonan, Lizzie Watson, Stella Staley, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Watson, Mr. James Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Son: Mesdames Farro, Rird McCarly, Son: Mesdames with the national colors and refreshments were served. The invited guests were: The Misses Lecompte, Pearson, Gray. Burline, Lawrence, Harrington, Bessie and Genevieve Wilson; Mesdames Fargo, Bird, McCarty, Blocher, Beggs, McPherson, Lockhart, Donoher, Lecompte. Wilson, Shields, Hubbard, Heath, Armstrong; Messrs, Farge, Bird, McCarty, Blocher, Beggs. Fargo, Bird, McCarty, Blocher, Beggs, McPherson, Lockhart, Donober, Le-compte, Wilson, Shields, Hubbard, Heath, Armstrong, Mixer, Frankel, Jeffs, Colbath, Hampton, Williams, Ed Lecompte, Teats and Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Miss Bessie Wilson, Alex Col-

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pyne entertained the members of the Fourth ward che in a very charming manner on Monday evening. The dming room was banked in flowers, where they feasted on ice cream and strawberries. Many choice musical selections were rendered. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. B. Boshard, J. H. Boshard, George Ramsey, William Buckley, Miss Jennie Buckley, Miss Florence Buckley, Miss Florence Buckley, Miss Rowene Booth, Miss Wilhelmeta Sperry, Miss Ida Fuller, Miss Lizzie Boyden, Miss Leah Pyne, Miss Bella Harris, Miss Ivy Freeman, Miss Elsie Ashworth, Mrs. Mattle Stark, Mr. James White, Mr. Edmund Gudgeon, Miss Pansey Thueson, Miss Jesse Ramsey, Miss Mary Cinn, Miss

The Hollbrook residence was a of gaiety on the evening of the 1st. The many friends of the talented daughter Angie gave her an informal reception prior to her departure for the east. Music and games on the beautiful and spacious lawn were eagerly enjoyed. A dainty and delicious lunch was served. The following guests were present: Miss Jennie Jones, Miss Annie Pike, Miss Hattle Pike, Miss Nessie Patterson, Miss Ada Dusenbury, Sie Patterson, Miss Ada Dusenbury, Miss Louis, Miss Cora Dusenbury, Miss Louis, Miss May Alexander, Miss Pauline More, Miss Elsie More, Miss Helen Glazier, Miss Roalna Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wooley, Mrs. Rose Searle, Mrs. Maggie Dusenberry, Mrs. Cora Cluff, Byron reception prior to her departure for the gie Dusenberry, Mrs. Cora Cluff, Byron Colton, Fred Buss, John Benche, Ralph

Ludlow, Clarence Jarvis. Mrs. George Atkin and son George will spend the coming week at Mil-

Miss Miriam Nelke has returned from her trip to Denver. Miss Pauline Moore was a Salt Lake visitor this past week,

The popular Elks gave a charming informal reception at their club rooms of July served the entire evening.

On Thursday evening. Dancing and music was indulged in and punch, served the entire evening. Miss Norma Berger of Chicago is visiting in Provo.

AND NOW COMES

The Great Clearing Up of the Remnants and Remnant Lots, Broken Lines, Odds and Ends, Etc.

A Remnant Jubilee for Everybody!

Myriads of Remnants that have been piling up on us during our Monstrous Sale, are now to be closed out to a remnant, at once. The reductions are phenomenal.

If You Come Early Enough You'll Have Choice of All of Them.

ESTABLISHED 1864 ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD

CENTER AISLE

Remnants of Wool Dress Goods in means suitable for dresses, waists and skirts, must be sold, let the loss be what it may. Deep cuts on every piece. Bargains to cause a commotion.

The Silk Dept.

Has not been forgot-ten in this massacre of prices. Hundreds of remnants and remnant lots will go at irresistible low Money never bought so much be-

An Event for Bargain

Thousands of Broken Lots-estraggling lines, accumulations of a tremendous season's selling gathered together and thrown out on the counters at almost incredible low prices.

It'll Be A Great Week's Clear-Up!

Centre Aisle

Remnants of White Goods

Marked down to almost nothing. Scorching bargains to effect a general clean-up. The biggest chance ever pre-sented.

Centre Aisle

Remnants of Bed Sheeting -- Remnants of Pillow Casing

REMNANTS of BED SHEETINGS, PILLOW CASINGS, BLEACHED AND UNBLEACHED MUSLINS, PRINTS AND PERCALES. ALL SLAUGHTERED TO CLOSE THEM OUT. Prices made that will delight buyers and clear out shelves.

Cloak Department Remaining Lots Shirt Waists

Cut to the core in prices. Not more than 20 dozen col ored Waists in percales, madras and glugham. Still further reductions to effect a speedy clean up.

Cloak Department Remaining Lots of Summer Skirts

In linen crash and pure linen. All selling to clear the tables at less than one-third regular prices; some slightly soiled, but they're washable.

In Our White Goods Department

To unload Remnant Lots of Fancy White Goods and Waistings. We slash prices down to half what others ask.

Ladies' Gloves and Mitts

Odds and Ends Sale. Clearing out of several styles, worth up to 60c a pair at-25c

Cloak Dept.

Remaining Lots of

Sacques and Kimonas

in sight. We still have !

lozen, and the price reduc tions are such that will clea-

them in a jiffy

CLEARANCE

Drastic, Decisive and Daring

That the Stocks to go will go in a Twinkling Every Line of Merchandise is Represented. 9

Gents' Furhishings Department

MEN'S SHIRTS-Golf and negligees in madras, zephyrs and corded percales—this season's patterns—must be closed out irrespective of cost.

Boys' Clothing

Department.

BOYS' SUITS - Broke

three-piece suits, Norfolks

Vestees and Sailor Suits a ices regardless of cost.

sisting of two-piece

Ladies' and

Children's Parasols

Final closing out sale

ill odds and ends at BIG

REDUCTIONS on the al

eady low SALE PRICES.

Cloak Department Remaining Lots of White Waists

the dollar, now must go at only a fraction of their cost —a full line of sizes, but many odd lots.

Cloak Department Remaining Lots of Silk Waists ever bought in any one season. Many large sizes are left. We do not hold any kind of price on them, so out they must go, without reserve. A clean sweep is our byword.

> Odds and Ends of Ladies' Corsets Nearly all sizes, some worth up to $1.25 a pair, for the odd and end sale at-

Odds and Ends of Ladies' and Children's Hosiery.

Values up to 40c a pair, on sale to wind up these lines at 19c

Sun Bonnets and Baby Caps.

About 15 dozen of them, al

15c each odds and ends, worth up loc each, choice at-

IN OUR Wash Goods Dept.

TWO YARDS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE—Thousands and thousands of yards to be slaught-ered—all kinds, all styles, all colors. We want to make a clean sweep of them all, and every piece has been marked at a price to clear it out with a rush.

Our

Shoe Dept.

Our Shoe Dept. BROKEN LINES, ODDS

NEW ARRIVAL OF CHILDREN'S BLACK SLIPPERS AND INFANTS: FOUR STRAP SANDALS JUST RECEIVED, and will be closed out at "CUT PRICES" this WEEK, WEEK.

Centre Aisle Remnants of Wash Fabrics

elties of all descriptions—in lengths suitable for dresses waists and skirts. ALMOST AT YOUR OWN PRICE. This is the most profitable time of the year to buy.

Centre Aisle Remnants of Table Linen == Remnants of Toweling

Broken lots of Napkins and Towels at SACRIFICE PRICES. Values not considered. OUT THEY MUST GO.

Center Aisle. Remnants of Draperies

SLIGHTLY SOILED BED-SPREADS, ODD PAIRS OF LACE CURTAINS, on sale at a fraction of their wholesale

Our Shoe Department.

GREATEST OF ALL CLEAN UP SALES in broken lines and odds and ends in all Shoes, Oxfords and Slipperst his week.

Prices On All Remnant Lots Cut to the Bone Understand the Position. Almost in a day all

Suffer the Severest Cuts, and Chiefly Affected are Items Enumerated

Broken Lots

All Embroidery and Lace Remnants.

Hundreds of them ranging from half to four yard lengths, marked for this week's Remnant Sale to LESS, MUCH LESS than half regular prices,

Our Shoe Department.

All BROKEN LINES and Odds and Ends of LADIES' Oxfords,m ust be closed out this

AND ENDS; and all ou CHILDREN'S SLIPPERS SLAUGHTERED THI

Cloak Dept. Boys' Clothing Remaining Lots of Department. Alpaca Skirts.

BOYS' PANTS - Cheviots. weeds and Cassimeres, al the best patterns and shade at prices astonishingly low.

only about 50 odd Skirts le to tell the greatest barga story ever told. They ready for your disposal the prices that we can new see again in Salt Lake. Gent's Furnishing Department

MEN'S AND BOYS' UNDERWEAR-A large assortment of broken sizes in plain and fancy balbriggan underwear, summer weight-must be sold this week at prices mutilated beyond all recognition.

Our Shoe Dept.

LADIES' OXFORDS, CHIL 'CUT PRICES" this week.

R

E STATE